USSMC is offering this specialized day and a half Grants/Grants Writing Training. This training is taught by a former National SBA Trainer and Grants Writer with over 23 years of experience as a Senior Management Consultant and who has trained over 10,000 small businesses throughout the United States.

Who Should Attend?

Community and or faith-based organizations/churches, academic researchers, educators, program planners, public sector and nonprofit professionals and administrators.

What Will I Learn?

We will teach you everything you have always wanted to know about grants and grants writing. We can help you address many of the social and economic problems that face our nation. Leave a legacy and do it through writing a grant.

We provide all the essential services to assure winning and continuous funding for projects. If you can vision it we can show you how to implement it.
